

Just Say NO.....to the powerful elite who want to consume the airways and the God given right of freedom of choice. Do not allow the continuous acquisitions and mergers that slowly tightens a strangle-hold on independent radio stations and networks. Stop corporate domination and continue to pursuit opportunities for future generations to hear truth and have access of free expression through media. These rights were hard fought by our ancestors and should not be given away to the rich and politically motivated. Thanks-you.